BROADDUS GAME IS

Coach Bell's Team Easily Jin Opening Game

Saturday.

The Normal football eleven wor their first game of the season Saturday when Broaddus college was de-leated 6 to 0. The Normal's lone touchdown was in the third quarter when John Reed went around the Broaddus and and behind the goal posts.

Mike Hamilton was the star for the Normal, crashing through the Broaddus line and stopping the Broaddus runner in his own back field on three different occasions. Reed took the back field honors with Ridgely play-ing a fair game throughout. Shore at left end went through the line and took the ball a number of times.

This week will be spent in prepara-on for the game with Davis and Elkins next Saturday at Eikins. D. & E. is one of the strongest teams that the Normal will meet this year.

Touchdown—Fairmont, Reed. Goals

from touchdown: Fairmont, Ridgley failed. Referee. Savage; umpire, Dr. Fleming; field judge, McKinney; lines-men, Watson and Myers; timers, Phil-lips and Pitzer; time of periods, 10 and 12 minutes.

INDUSTRIAL FAIRMONT

Sticky and muddy, making an eager sucking sound when the wagon and horses try to pass through, the mud in the big holes on the road to Antonio Scalise's Columbia Glass factory seems to become more dangerous and greedy with each rain. The rain of today came just as the former mud had almost dried up and Antonio was amiling once more in the hope that perhaps since more in the nope that perhaps since the city is doing so much paving of streets about town they might fill up these holes. But the water still runs down the middle of the street.
